One night when we’re gone

New forms of planets and life comes along

One night when we’re gone

No more fake news, no novels and songs

One night when we’re gone

No more metaphors of how life is so painfully long

One night when we’re gone

We have seen the last human dawn

One night the earth will be free

No more maggots like you and me

I know,
it’s fucking beautiful

One night when we’re gone

No mamas and papas, No one to lean on

One night when we’re gone

No opinions, No right and no wrong

One night the earth will be free

No more maggots like you and me

I know,
it’s fucking beautiful
