Kort projektbeskrivelse som forelægges udvalget uredigeret
"Children's music for adults" is a dynamic transformative acoustic project involving some of the most talented and innovative young classical musicians and improvisers active in Copenhagen. Our common goal is to create an inclusive environment of spontaneous collective music creation, a cybernetic orchestra, viewed as a system able to regulate itself, and no need for a conductor or instructions; The idea conveyed in "Children's music for adults" is centered around the act of generating music and sound collaboratively in the present moment, wherein the participants transcend their individual egos to become a part of something greater than themselves.

Formidling af projektet
The event will be promoted through various channels, including social media, music websites and local newspapers. Flyers and posters will be distributed in the local area to increase visibility and attract a larger audience. We will announce the event on the main online calendars, such as Kultunaut, HighPass, and Resident Advisor. The event will be promoted at art universities and conservatories to attract young musicians and multidisciplinary artists interested in a creative, open-minded space for experimentation and expression.
