Kort projektbeskrivelse som forelægges udvalget uredigeret
// YOU ARE THE TUBE // AV performance for 3 YouTubers/Astronauts // YOU ARE THE TUBE // is an experiment in using Youtube as exclusive source and instrument of audio-visual production and performance. At the performance, 4 performers live processing YouTube material create a disturbing and truly unforgettable audiovisual experience, guiding the audience through a visionary path of images and sounds, including improvisation, randomness, and electronic processing, leading to investigate the codification of sound as music. We developed some javascript tools to play youtube as a sampler, enabling us to add functions to the default setting, and expand our musical possibilities. Challenging established notions of the role of responsibility of the composer and performer, the project raises profound questions of relevance to artists across disciplines and orientations and does so based on meticulous research. // YOU ARE THE TUBE // stands out as unique contribution to this field of inquiry, a meticulous, touching, and truly visionary work of art.

Formidling af projektet
Our intention is to promote the concert on all social media, and of course on Youtube's platform; we will have a person responsible for creating visual content (promo video, GIF, etc.) to post online; furthermore, we want to involve local institutions, cultural spaces, universities of music, visual art, theater, and media, in order to create a friendly network to exchange knowledge and inspire each other. We are going to print posters and flyers to disseminate around town.
