Angiv en kort projektbeskrivelse (max 1.200 karakterer):	TEMI is a transdisciplinary collaboration of dance and music, revealing life and death. It is layers of sounds leaning on bodies. It is researching: dancers as musicians and musicians as dancers. Compositional journeys as psychological symbols are interpreted by dancers led by choreographer Ágnes Grélinger and the international jazz collective ALIGAGA. Three performances and a preceding week of artistic rehearsals will be hosted by TEATRØEN in Copenhagen, DK.
Hvordan formidles projektet? (max 1.200 karakterer):	The project is going to be advertise through the musicians and dancers social networks, by the local venue Teaterøen, on the artists primary websites, on the art academies (eg. RMC, den danske scenekunstskele), on the local dance scene as Absalon contact improvisation, GAGA dance, comedy dance Amagerbro, dance share and the local music associations and labels as Noisee Beehive, Gotta let it out, Love and Beauty Music and 5E - H15 crowd.
