Kort projektbeskrivelse som forelægges udvalget uredigeret
ll omen 2 is a sequence of site-specific group exhibitions initiated by Claudia Dyboski and Taka Kono. The project aims to construct alternative logics and poetics to dream interpretations of the collective insomnia of late capitalism. this sequel, hosted at Church and curated by Underground Flower, is both an excavation of past traces which were activated in its first manifestation, and a posture of readiness for new omens waiting to reveal themselves in a new space and with new collaborators. poised at the threshold of a shadowy tunnel, something lurks around the bend; we cannot know if it's beckoning or foreboding until we open ourselves to receive it. bearing proto-symbolic or animistic cues, some with their own light sources, the sculptures draw the visitor into this sun-starved shadow realm to navigate its eccentric logic. emerging from the tunnel and returning to the screen, we bear its trace under our eyelids: an after-image of unconscious memory waiting to fully realize itself.
