Letter of intent

To whom it may concern:

On behalf of platform BUNKER, I hereby confirm our intention in collaboration on the project RING/CAM: Notes on Live Arts in the XXI Century, curated by Elia-Rosa Guirous-Amasse and Joachim Aagaard Friis, in January 2026. We believe that their project aligns very well with the artistic profile of the venue.

RING/CAM: Notes on Live Arts in the XXI Century is a multisite exhibition that explores themes of sur/sousveillance, digital embodiment, and the political implications of rising techno-fascism as a way to respond critically to the entanglement of emerging technologies, art and power structures. It is curated by Elia-Rosa Guirous-Amasse and Joachim Aagaard Friis. It is planned to unfold over a week in January 2026.

platform BUNKER is a small and independent artist-led platform. It is neither a black box nor a white cube, but an inclusive and intimate space providing the artists with the possibility of rethinking the audience experience through the active engagement of the participants. platform BUNKER was founded in 2021 by Rebekka Bohse Meyer and Lise Seier Petersen, but is now run by Rebekka Bohse Meyer and Sól Ey. For the exhibition, platform BUNKER will provide their exhibition space and will take care of promotion on their social media channels.

Sincerely,

Rebekka Bohse Meyer

Collaboration Letter

On behalf of Softer, we are pleased to confirm our collaboration with Joachim Aagaard Friis and Elia-Rosa Guirous-Amasse on the RING/CAM exhibition project, scheduled for November 2025.

Softer will provide the venue, on-site materials, and communication support for the project.
The initiative is led by Nicole Jonasson and Ida Lissner.

We look forward to a fruitful collaboration.
