Kort projektbeskrivelse som forelægges udvalget uredigeret
Building Network for the New Generation through the use of Music, dance, drumming and fellowship. Background In our effort to build a society that each and everyone is independent and self driving, we have created a nation of lonely individuals. This we can explain from individuals finding it difficult to ask for help even when their next door neighbour has their need and they can not ask for help. There are many examples and reason of not well connected network in our society today. This is the background that gave Stanley Adjeiquaye's Ministry the need to develop this project. What is it Building Network for the New Generation through the use of Music, dance, drumming and fellowship. Stanley Adjeiquaye's Ministry Stanley Adjeiquaye's Ministry is an NGO which has the aim to promote intercultural exchange program through music, drumming, dance and support to the needy in our community or society and beyond.
