Kort projektbeskrivelse som forelægges udvalget uredigeret
"Dystopian Nights" thrives in Copenhagen's underground scene, offering a unique show that blends contemporary music, improvisation, harsh noise, and electronic music, creating an inclusive and unexpected evening of art. The platform welcomes all styles, inspirations, and art forms that are unusual or outside the mainstream, catering to innovative, dynamic individuals who push the boundaries of traditional art. But especially, Dystopian is a community of people before artists who work together to realize a common goal with no compromises, enjoying every moment along "Dystopian Nights" actively seeks new artists, embracing every alternative project regardless of age, social background, or gender. Throughout the year, the show collaborates with other local alternative realities, such as NoFigure, SuperNoise, Absolute Music, PRIMI, The Community, fostering a network of forward-thinking creatives and art enthusiasts. The showcase features high-level music and interdisciplinary art forms, including audiovisual and performance art. To celebrate their activity and network, the team of enthusiastic volunteers plans to organize a one-day festival filled with art and creativity.
