Kort projektbeskrivelse som forelægges udvalget uredigeret
ALIEN DIVINE is a choreographic investigation into meeting and befriending the unknown. Through the figure of the alien – both as a pop-cultural phenomenon and as a broader term for otherness – the work explores how we encounter one another within the (post)modern condition of alienation and skepticism. What role do wonder and enchantment still play in everyday life, and how do we continue to nourish them as a pillar of community? ALIEN DIVINE / chapter#1: gallery edition consists of 10 performative interventions at the gallery Vognporten in January and February 2027 as part of the group exhibition Twitching Contour. It will mark the first chapter of a choreographic project running over the next three years, with versatile public outcomes on the way. The goal is to establish a strong artistic foundation for a performance series/concept, adaptable to different sites and contexts and able to sustain a long touring life. By working with shifting parameters each of the 10 performative interventions will be different and responsive to the specific gathering with the group of spectators: exploring ways of sharing space through proximity, elongated performing states and shifts of pace.
